year the Makkah was finally completed with the most precious ones – Arabian horses!

In cooperation with Tutto Arabi magazine Cavalli a Milano successfully completed its program with International Arabian Horse Show and Egyptian Event. Simone Leo and Fabio Brianzoni with their team did an impressive job inviting prestigious sponsors to take part in the 1st edition of Arabi A Milano event. Not only Italian companies and studs supported the show – as main sponsors the Emirates Arabian Horse Society, Alnayfat Stud from Saudi Arabia and Haras Cruzeiro with HBV studs from Brazil supported the international competition while Egyptian Event under the patronage of Pyramid

Society Europe was sponsored by Salayel Arabians. This new coming to the stage stud from Saudi Arabia also kindly took the patronage of the interesting idea of typical Italian "aperitivo" - early dinner served in one of most charming areas of Milan - Navigli full of artists performing and selling their work along the Venetia-like canals in front of romantic little trattorias serving the famous Italian cuisine. One of them - Le Trottoir Alla Darsena was the meeting place for Salayel & Tutto Arabi Party that was announced on the Milan city center streets by impressive Salayel flags in front of trattoria and the evening ended up really crowded with good fun.

Thursday and Friday together with the Milano Cup show futurities. Both Egyptian Event and Milano Cup were judged by the panel of judges from both parts of the globe – Murilo Kammer and Zico Guardia from Brazil, Pierluigi Rota and Fausto Scanzi from Italy while Ferdinand Schwestermann from Switzerland joined them to judge the Liberty Class on Sunday evening. Egyptian Events being very estimated not only by Egyptian and Middle Eastern breeders are becoming more and more popular ranking also in Europe and so in Milan the quality of its competitors was high and the winners not easy to be chosen. In futurities all the entered offspring were sired by popular Frasera Mashar with the winning filly – Aisha by Mashar bred and owned by Giampaolo Gubbiotti while
