JAVAN | PHOTOGRAPHY

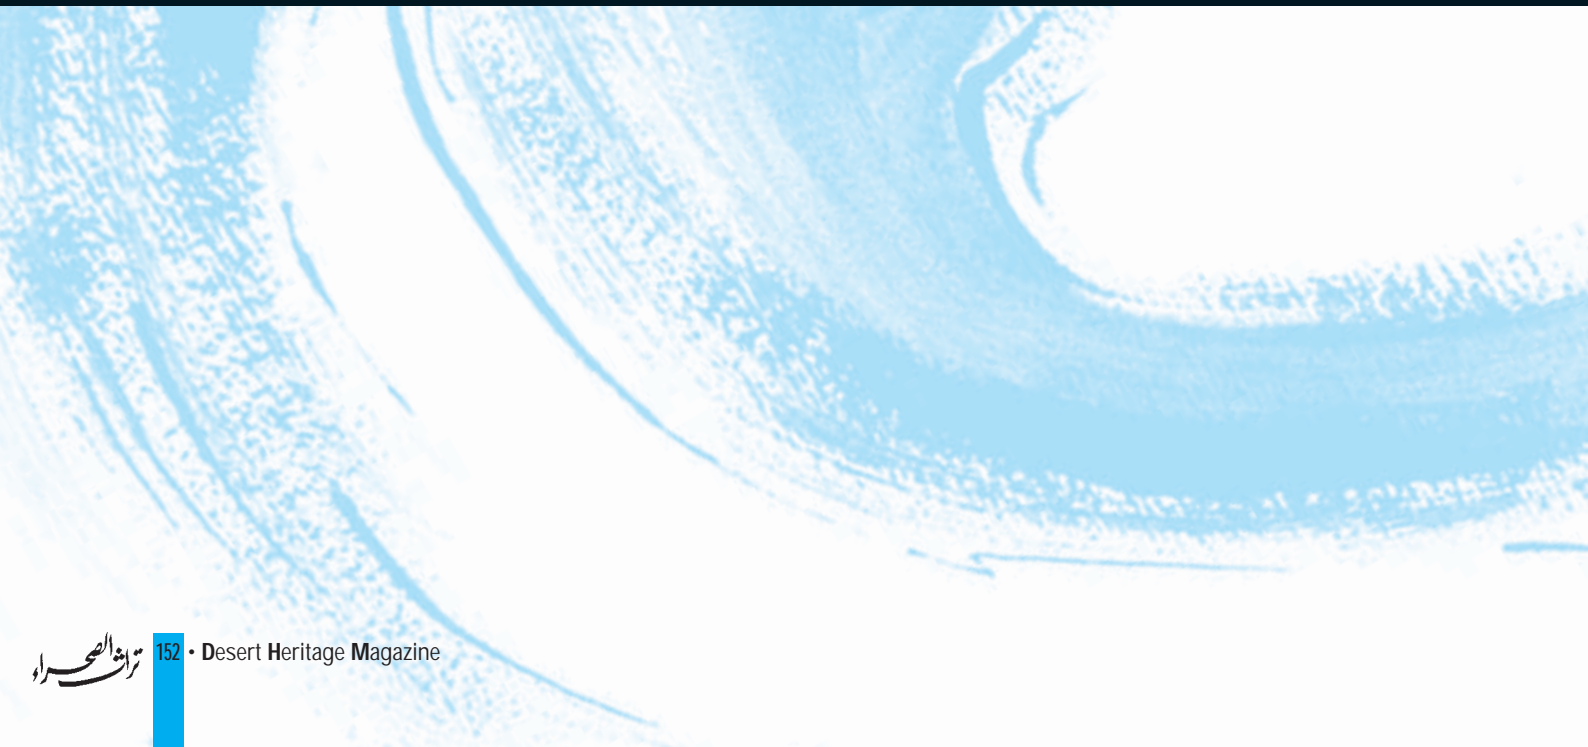

ALLIONCE, CALIFORNIA SUNSET

German born photographer Javan came to America in 1970. Considered an expert in equine photography, he specializes in filming Arabians at an international level traveling to destinations such as South America, Europe and the Middle East. His work draws world interest with his ability to photograph the beauty and uniqueness that the Arabian horse inspires. Although specializing in photography Javan also creates his works of art through video, painting and multimedia projects. He is credited with a 20 year history of cover story photography with many of today's leading publications. Javan now resides in Scottsdale, Arizona.
