EQUINE ARTIST AND JEWELRY DESIGNER

After graduating with a four year, postgraduate, medical degree in Acupuncture, Kim is now following in her mother's footsteps. She is designing exquisite equine jewelry and creating amazing bronze sculptures. Kim's fine jewelry and sculptures can be found in prized collections around the globe.

Judy and Kim have travelled extensively in Egypt, Africa, Italy and the Middle East researching the history of the Arabian horse. Their collections reflect the classic style of the 19th century French school of sculpture, Les Animaliers. Judy and Kim live in Arizona where they are surrounded by the natural beauty of the desert and can enjoy the many horse farms in the area.

Judy and Kim have completed over twenty life-size bronzes together and numerous tabletop bronze sculptures and trophies. Kim has been designing elegant equine jewelry, for discriminating collectors, since 1990.

When I reflect on the world's troubles, I feel that I should be saving the world, by being a doctor, or by doing something else that is on the frontline saving lives. But then I remember this quote I received from one of my dear friends, Saul Fox, and I am at peace with what I do because I realize that I am saving the world in my own way by creating my artwork, I am doing my part!

Pharaoh's Horse

I want to thank you for creating the piece. No matter how troubled the world new is, or how tired or low my spirits may be, I know I can gaze upon that magnificent steed and see the world as it ought to be, free, intelligent, proud, virile and radiating a love of life in his every fibre and movement. You couldn't have created all that by accident. But you did express it, with skill and eloquence, and you touched my soul.

Thank you,
Saul Fox
