

Judy and Kim Nordquist

Judy and Kim have traveled extensively throughout the Arab world researching the history of the Arabian horse. Inspired by their travels, their sculptures capture the elegance of a beautiful mare to the power and majesty of an Arabian stallion. Their love and passion for Arabian horse is revealed in breathtaking bronze sculptures as the exciting spirit of the horse comes alive!

www.JKnordquist.com

Bringing Bronze to Life. . .

Desert Caravan

Original clay sculpture
copyright - Judy and Kim Nordquist

Flying across the desert sands on the back of a magnificent stallion. . .

Serene beauty of the desert sunrise with the pyramids of Giza silhouetted in the distance. . .

The enchantment and beauty. . .

The Talisman bronze sculpture

copyright - Judy and Kim Nordquist

Reflection of Heritage. . .

Classic Rendition bronze sculpture

copyright - Judy and Kim Nordquist

Photo - Debbie Brunhild

Dreams and Inspiration comes to Life...

Photo - Javan

Photo - Moffatt Photography

Stallion of the Wind - Midwest Training Centre

copyright - Judy and Kim Nordquist

King Maker. . .

Photos Courtesy of Javan

King of Kings
Sahara Scottsdale

Dreams come to life . .

Photo - Debbie Brunhild

Majesty

copyright - Judy and Kim Nordquist

Desert Song - life-size bronze

copyright - Judy and Kim Nordquist

Capturing the spirit and exotic beauty of the desert stallion. . .

Spirit - Proposed Life-size bronze

copyright - Judy and Kim Nordquist

The power and majesty of a magnificent stallion. . .

Desert Mirage

copyright - Judy and Kim Nordquist

Romance and Elegance in black and white. . .

Desert Heritage
copyright - Judy and Kim Nordquist

Wind Dancer
copyright - Judy and Kim Nordquist

Elegance
copyright - Judy and Kim Nordquist

Photo - Lisa Abraham