One fine April day a colt like no other was born at Al Shaqab. A much hoped-for son of the famed Ansata Halim Shah, this handsome foal was destined to carry on the legacy of his sire who passed away earlier in the year. Named Al Adeed Al Shaqab, his exceptional quality was obvious at birth and was equally matched by his incomparable bloodlines.

An extraordinary individual and a born show horse, Al Adeed Al Shaqab resulted from a most favorable merger of genes from superior ancestors. He represents all those remarkable qualities that make up a supreme champion and a near perfect Arabian: superb type, extreme head, bold movement, pride of carriage, and a distinctive charisma.

Widely appreciated by judges and countless Arabian enthusiasts around the globe, his undefeated record in the show ring was truly phenomenal.

Although Al Adeed Al Shaqab had won titles in three continents during his 10 years of competition, his crowning achievement came at 2003 Salon Du Cheval in Paris – the show where legends are made. Here, at the traditional meeting place for the international Arabian horse community, Al Adeed Al Shaqab gave the performance of his life.

Fans cheered as he entered the arena – dynamic, charismatic, alert! This was his domain and his moment – and he pranced into the spotlight as World Champion Stallion with a final score of 479, among the highest points in the history of the Salon Du Cheval, plus the highest score for legs at that year's show! Now a living legend, his name is recorded as a leader in the world of Arabian show horses.

The Al Shaqab Straight Egyptian breeding program was founded in 1992 and is dedicated to preserving straight Egyptian bloodlines at the highest level of quality. With Al Adeed Al Shaqab at the head of the straight Egyptian program, his son Farhoud Al Shaqab (x Johara Al Shaqab) is following his illustrious sire. Farhoud Al Shaqab's overall harmony and style earned him the distinction of a very few two-year-olds to ever be declared the 2010 Unanimous Junior Champion Colt and Supreme Champion Male in the history of the U.S. Egyptian Event.
